★★★★★ works well

pretty amazed at the healing when left on for a few days. I recommend these highly to my friends. Prefer the product without it's own adhesive as it did not stick well, but these, with your own choice of transparent film dressing can stay on for a week.

★★★★★ NO INFECTION healing -using a waterproof cover

I have used this product one time; I applied it as directed over an open wound on arm and covered it with a waterproof shield. I left it that way for eight days, removed the covering & the Powerheal and my wound had healed perfectly.! This was in a 1/3 or 1/4 the time normally required. I am now inquiring about Mohs surgery areas application details. VERY PROMISING!

Have ulcer on lower right leg. Been to wound care centers with no luck. Have been using this bandage for about a month and wound is shrinking with each bandage change. Update- Wound is completely healed after fighting with it for over 7 years. Highly recommend it.

★★★★★ AMAZING WOUND HEALING 50% SMALLER 4 DAYS

Reviewed in the United States on March 14, 2025

He packets and I think a 1x1 size square pad with dots on it... I covered the a square with the gel and then placed a larger nonadhesive pad over the top and secured with paper tape.

Changed it everyday, 4 days in a row.

My wound reduced in size by HALF! It was completely painless. No irritation, didn't stick to my wound or pull tissue off when changing. I'm reeordering to do one more round. Bc there were only 4 applications but absolutely worth it! This has been a prolonged wound due to its position, unavoidable friction/rubbing right on top center of my foot. This is by far the best results I've experienced! I am truly grateful...I haven't been able to wear a shoe for weeks bc it tears the skin right off! I was able to put on a CROC yesterday I couldn't believe it! I'm was so excited! (don't like Crocs but at least it's a "shoe" of sorts!)

I fell while riding my bike and had a pretty large cut. This bandage was great for the surface area (and can cut to customize) of the wound. I specifically like the antimicrobial properties! Was easy to put on as well. Just note it doesn't come with adhesive - need something to keep it in place. I personally recommend a tegaderm-like adhesive product. Will be keeping some on hand for future!

After I fell down in a rollerblading incident, I banged up my knee and leg pretty badly. I found these products through an ad and tried them out and my skin healed so quickly and looks better than ever! Really glad I found these products. Sure beats the bandages, gauze and ointments I would have otherwise used. Highly recommend!
